Warning---Read This Postscript First!

The Wanamaker Store is the only store authorized by the Whittall company to offer Whittall rugs now at prices under the fixed rates agreed to by all dealers.

We are granted this privilege because we purchased a large quantity of the rugs on hand at the Whittall mill after the recent explosion noted below.

This Whittall purchase amounts to $299,699, embracing at least 11,539 rugs (according to the still incomplete Whittall records), in 109 sizes and 359 selections, a stock in itself that is larger, we believe, than the combined stocks of Whittall rugs now in all other stores in New York, Philadelphia and Boston.

Owning these rugs at lower figures than any other store, we have marked on them prices that are the lowest ever quoted for these grades, so far as we know.

The special sale Whittall rugs are offered alone. Each rug has the Whittall name woven into it. There are no other rugs mixed in with the Whittalls to fill in broken sizes or swell the variety and quantity, as is the custom in some places.

The sale opens tomorrow, Tuesday, but most of the rugs are now on our floors, being ticketed with the new prices, and they may be seen and examined today.

Because the prices are, in many instances, even lower than other stores can buy the rugs for, we reserve the right to refuse a sale when the purchaser appears to be a dealer.

The Wanamaker Store Is Authorized to Offer for the First Time, the Regular Stocks of the Famous WHITTALL Rugs

Under the Fixed Market Prices, as Noted Below
BECAUSE OF

A Favorable Purchase Made by Us Under Extraordinary Circumstances

The extraordinary circumstances are in connection with an explosion, doing much damage, at the mills of M. J. Whittall, Worcester, Mass., on August 25th. The occurrence brings to us the rugs from the looms and the storeroom that are of first quality, the full service of which we guarantee because Whittall guarantees the rugs to us, and because we know they are all right.

According to the Whittall records (still incomplete) the purchase includes

11,539 Rugs---in 109 sizes and 359 selections

9x12 ft. Anglo-Persian Wiltons (fixed price $60), $36.75 now
9x12 ft. Anglo-Indian Wiltons (fixed price $50), $36.50 now
9x12 ft. Royal Worcester Wiltons (fixed price $45) $32.50 now
9x12 ft. Childema (finest) Body Brussels (fixed price $32.50) $23.75 now

To protect their product from being pirated by cut-price stores and used as baits, the name Whittall is woven in every rug and dealers are held to an agreement to maintain a fixed price during the season.

The only time a difference is authorized in the price is at the end of a season, when discontinued patterns are offered, or under some extraordinary circumstance such as brings these rugs into our hands now.

Thirty-three years ago Mr. M. J. Whittall began the manufacture of carpets in a small wooden building in Worcester, Mass.

Today Mr. Whittall is the largest individual manufacturer of carpets and rugs in the world, the products of his looms, in rugs alone, aggregating 1,250,000 a year. Whittall rugs are acknowledged to be the finest rug made in America.

The mills that make these rugs are one of the industrial features of Worcester—the city in which Elias Howe built the first sewing machine.

They are often called the Oriental rugs of America, for, in addition to their Oriental designs, closely following the original, the wool of which they are made comes from the same sources as that used in most Oriental rugs—the coarse, tough, long fibered, lustrous wool of the hardy sheep native to the mountains and desert lands of Persia, India, Turkestan, Thibet and the Himalayan region

Anglo-Persian

The most closely woven and finest texture Worsted Wilton Rug produced in America. Unequaled for beauty of design, coloring, texture and wear.

BOYS FIND MURDERED MAN.
Come Upon the Body in a Groove Near Sing Sing Prison.
OSWING, Oct. 5.—Michael John Glavin, a piano polisher, 35 years old, was found murdered in a dump of woods not far from Sing Sing prison this afternoon by two boys. Death had been caused by a blow just behind the left ear. Papers in his pockets indicated that he was wanted in Boston on a charge of abandonment of his wife.
Glavin was seen in a saloon near the railroad station last night. He was drinking heavily. An autopsy showed that his skull had been fractured by some sharp instrument. The police have no clues.
